

Krystal Crump has more than five years of experience as an auditor for schools, cities, and counties and is currently the director of finance and IT for the City of Kennedale. She has a bachelors degree in accounting and masters degree in accountancy from Baylor University.