

Robert Camareno – City Manager

Robert Camareno has a passion for public service and is honored to be the City Manager for the City of New Braunfels, the second fastest growing city in the country. As City Manager, he is responsible for the day to day operations of the City. The City Manager is one of three employees of the City appointed by the Council.

Robert was born in New Braunfels, graduated from New Braunfels High School, received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Phoenix in Accounting and is a member of the International City/County Management Association and the Texas City Management Association.

After high school, Robert honorably served in the United States Marine Corps for three years and received two meritorious promotions. Robert started his professional career as an accountant with a large certified public accounting firm in Arizona. After eight years with the firm, he went on to become the Finance Director and Interim City Manager for the City of Eloy, Arizona. He then served the City of Casa Grande, Arizona as a Budget Analyst, Supervising Accounting and Interim Finance Director.

Because of a desire to be closer to his parents, Robert moved back to Texas to become the Assistant City Manager/Director of Finance for the City of Copperas Cove, Texas. He then reached a professional goal by becoming a City Manager in the City of Buda, Texas. In 2008 Robert realized a personal goal - to serve his hometown, New Braunfels, Texas. First as the Assistant City Manager and then City Manager since 2013.

Robert is married and has three children. Because of his dedication to serve others, he currently volunteers as a member of the Board of Directors for Communities in Schools, an organization that works hand in hand with schools, communities and families to help students stay in school and succeed in life. He previously served on the Board of Directors for the United Way of Comal County, the Eloy Chamber of Commerce, Copperas Cove Chamber of Commerce and Upstarts.
