

Catie Burleigh is one of two truth-in-taxation specialists with the Information and Customer Service Team of the Comptroller's Property Tax Assistance Division. She also participates in the training of Appraisal Review Board members across the state, the administration of the Statewide Binding Arbitration program for the appeal of Appraisal Review Board determinations, and general outreach and support. She is responsible for updating forms, publications, and webpages relating to truth-in-taxation and tax assessor-collector duties after legislative sessions. Catie has completed all coursework and examinations for the Registered Tax Assessor-Collector designation.

Catie has been with the Comptroller's office for almost four years. Prior to the Comptroller's office, she worked in the solid waste and insurance fields.
